

What does it mean to be a Councillor?

Free Information Sessions

Becoming a Councillor

The Local Government Association of Tasmania (LGAT), in conjunction with the Local Government Division Department of Premier and Cabinet, Tasmanian Electoral Commission, the Tasmanian Audit Office, the Integrity Commission and the Australian Local Government Women's Association (Tas) are running a series of free information sessions for people who are interested in standing at the Local Government elections in October 2018. The information sessions provide a valuable opportunity for potential candidates to receive information about community expectations and the roles and responsibilities of becoming an elected member.

Sessions

- 5th June - Gnomon Pavilion, The Wharf, Ulverstone
- 6th June - Tamar Function Centre, West Tamar, Riverside
- 13th June - Elizabeth Street Function Room, Hobart Town Hall (access off Town Hall carpark).

All session times are 6.00pm - 8.00pm

Find out more about the roles and functions of mayors and councillors, eligibility requirements, the election process, rules around campaigning and how personally enriching helping to shape your community can be as well as the opportunity to ask questions of current elected members about their role.
