INVITATION TO RECONCILIATION WEEK EVENTS 2019

National Reconciliation Week (NRW) is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia.

The dates for NRW remain the same each year: 27 May to 3 June. These dates commemorate two significant milestones in the reconciliation journey – the successful 1967 referendum, and the High Court Mabo decision respectively.

Reconciliation Tasmania has planned two core events to celebrate NRW and bring Tasmanians together.

The first of these events is a Breakfast in each of the three regions and the second event is an 'On-Country' Day in each of the three regions.

In National Reconciliation Week 2019, why not take the opportunity to challenge your own ideas around reconciliation. What can you do to build relationships and broaden your understanding of the history and culture of First Tasmanians?

The first step might be to attend a Reconciliation Breakfast or 'On-Country' Day.

The keynote speaker at each of the Breakfasts is Mr Peter Yu.

Mr Peter Yu is a Yawuru Man from Broome in the Kimberley region in North West Australia with over 35 years of experience in Indigenous development and advocacy in the Kimberley and at the state, national and international level.

Peter Yu delivered the prestigious annual Reconciliation Lecture at the Australian National University on 23 February 2018. During his lecture "Reconciliation, Treaty Making and Nation Building", Peter challenged our traditional view of reconciliation "It has become part of Australia's lazy dialogue concerning Indigenous people dominated by symbolism which has little connection with the realities of people's lives."
