The new members of GMC take up their appointment after the LGAT AGM on the 22 July. The election of Vice President will take place at that time.

Current Vice President, Mayor Daryl Quilliam will continue to act as President until that time. Under the Rules of the Association, if a new Vice President is elected, they will become Acting President until the election of a President is complete.

Following the sad passing of former President, Mayor Barry Jarvis, whose term was to be until 2017, the process for a presidential by-election has commenced.

Nominations for LGAT President close on Friday, 30 July 2015, with ballot material to be posted Tuesday, 4 August 2015. The close of the postal ballot and declaration of result will take place on Tuesday, 8 September 2015. The Election is overseen by the Tasmanian Electoral Commission.
